PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

- 22     You shall reside in a residential reentry center for a period of up to 90 days. You shall not be entitled to the benefits of the prerelease component. You shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility. You shall remain at the facility until discharged by the Court.

CAUSE

On September 11, 2006, Mr. Hansen was before the Court for a revocation proceeding. His term of supervised release was revoked and he was sentenced to 3 months imprisonment, followed by 57 months of supervised release. As a condition of his supervised release, the defendant was required to reside in a residential reentry center (RRC) for a period of 180 days.

Shortly after being placed at Bannum RRC, their staff reported to the U.S. Probation Office that Mr. Hansen had severe short term memory deficit, and was also suffering from a seizure disorder. It should be noted that the presentence report indicates the defendant received a traumatic brain injury as a young man. While at Bannum, he was treated medically for his seizures and screened for other neurological issues, including his memory deficit.

During this process he applied for Social Security Disability, as well as benefits through the State of Washington. His initial application for Social Security Disability was denied. The Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS) referred him for medical examinations, and ultimately found that he was unemployable. He was granted benefits through the state to include medicaid, and is appealing the denial of benefits through Social Security Disability.

On March 27, 2007, Bannum advised the U.S. Probation Office they would no longer house Mr. Hansen due to his continued seizures. They indicated they did not have medical staff available to provide him with the level of care necessary. The Bureau of Prisons allowed for him to be moved to Geiger Corrections Center where medical staff is on site continually.

The undersigned officer has been working with DSHS in an attempt to secure an assisted home living environment for his release to the community. Mr. Hansen met with a case worker from Home and Community Services on April 18, 2007, to be screened for placement. It was determined that he meets the requirement for placement, and the expense will be paid through his medicaid. However, it was indicated it could take an additional 30 to 60 days to secure a residence for him through Home and Community Services. Mr. Hansen currently has no other release options, and is scheduled to be released from the RRC on April 30, 2007.

It is respectfully requested that the Court grant an extension of up to 90 days at the RRC, pending his placement through Home and Community Services. The undersigned officer will advise the Court as soon as an opening is available in their program. At which time request will be made for immediate discharge from the RRC.

Respectfully submitted,
